

HIGHLIGHTS OF CURRENT EVENTS

By Bill Dennis

March 30, 1948, in this writer's opinion, is another day that will "live in infamy." For on that day, 149 chosen representatives of the American people voted to extend aid, under the ERP, to Franco Spain.

Reading and hearing about this, set up a chain of memories, most unpleasant memories, for me. I remember the year 1940, when as a young man somewhat disgruntled with his civilian occupation, I decided to join the Army and get my year over with.

"Mr. Average Soldier" I suppose you would call me. I didn't know too much about the international situation and did not believe that the danger was as great as it actually was.

LOOKS DISGUSTING

"The Fighting Man" and "Why We Fight" series, even Pearl Harbor and the Normandy Beach, failed to forcibly bring home the real meaning of Fascism. As the war progressed and we passed through Germany, certain members of my company found the frauleins (those nice, neat frauleins) even more hospitable than the French. Some of the boys even found it hard to believe the stories they had heard about Nazi atrocities.

Then one day my outfit liberated a Nazi "experimental station" in Nordhausen. It wasn't a very big camp, but it was unique in its neatness. There were bodies, human bodies, stacked neatly like cordwood in nice, neat, even rows. You've probably seen newsreel pictures of just this sort of thing, but somehow the newsreels haven't, as yet, got around to reproducing odors.

The stench of that Nazi "experimental station" beggars description. It left me with a sick feeling that I find impossible to describe.

NEVER FORGOTTEN

I guess it was on that day that I really knew what it was to hate something as intangible as "fascism." But I learned, and I've never forgotten that hatred.

Somehow the thought that a clean, strong, virile nation like America—a nation of builders, not destroyers—a nation dedicated to individual freedom and the inherent dignity of man—a nation proud of its traditions and heritage—could ever be maneuvered into a position of supporting anything like Franco Spain leaves me with the same sick feeling that I felt at Nordhausen.

Somewhere, probably in Hell, there is a little man with a Chaplin mustache and an unruly forelock chuckling with satisfaction.

VA Office Explains 12-15 Unit Puzzle

State Veterans' Administration office was swamped by a host of veterans seeking clarification of the "12 unit to 15 unit" confusion. This deluge evolved as a result of the Washington release in the newspapers, stating that veterans carrying less than 15 units would not get the subsistence raise.

William I. Olsen, former training officer, unofficially was quoted denying that veterans' scholastic loads must be increased from the 12 unit minimum to 15.

His statement was corroborated by similar unofficial declarations from VA headquarters. However, official confirmation or denial is issued solely by Public Relations Office of VA.

The Public Relations Office quoted Veterans' Regulations, "A full-time student is one carrying not less than the minimum determined by the college." State has established 12 units as satisfying full-time status. Colleges can set limits from 12-15 units as the requirement.

Art Classes Map Two-Week Exhibit

A two-week art exhibit, emphasizing the individual development of students in Art 4, Introductory Art, will be held in the Activities Room, beginning Monday between the hours of 10 a.m. and 4 p.m.

The exhibit will display work in color and design, perspective, lettering, landscape, still life and other forms of art, using paint, chalk, water color and oil. Chairman of the exhibit, which is being sponsored by the activity classes, is Mr. Seymour Lockes.

Round Two: Board Rules AVC Chapter On-Campus

The Board of Directors voted to "stand in favor of the American Veterans' Committee" as an on-campus organization at its meeting last Tuesday. This action followed discussion of a previous vote by the board. On January 6 the board voted to "recognize" the State College chapter of AVC.

Phil Ryan asked the Board to reconsider its action on the measure. He said it was not clear whether AVC had been approved or merely recommended for approval by the Deans' Committee.

Ken Pasqualetti, activities commissioner, said "We merely went on record as recommending that the Deans' Committee look into the thing."

VOTING MIXUP

Further discussions showed that a mix-up in the voting procedure had occurred. According to the Associated Students' constitution, the Board is allowed to award recognition to a campus organization only after the Deans' Committee has approved the organization.

George Allen said AVC is "tentatively an on-campus organization since Dean Mary Ward has approved its constitution for a reading before the Deans' Committee."

The AVC constitution has met requirements of the nine-point plan adopted this semester. (See editorial, page 2.)

REVIEW REVISIONS

Proposed revisions of the student body constitution also were reviewed by the Board. O'Leary said recommended changes were necessary to bring the constitution up to date.

The three proposals submitted for approval covered: Duties of the Activities Committee; function and structure of the Welfare Board and election of faculty members to fill vacancies on the Board.

O'Leary also announced a campaign to gain student interest in student body cards is contemplated. "We're not hitting about 1000 of our students. Maybe it's the type of appeal we use," he said.

Stanford Judges Get WCC Essay

A 1500 word essay entitled "Western College Congress and World Realities" was submitted to judges at Stanford University, March 20, by Mardi Schwarz.

Miss Schwarz, delegate to the conference at Stanford last November, took the essay, along with State's tabulated peace proposal ballots, to Palo Alto personally.

The essay was written by a group of students who formulated their views in round-table fashion, according to Miss Schwarz.

"Decision of the judges will not be known for several weeks," she said. The college chosen as representative of highest student participation will send its delegates to the State Department in Washington and to the American Delegation at United Nations Headquarters.

New VA Representative

Paul Leslie, representative of the Veterans Administration, will speak on latest information for veterans, Tuesday in Room 207, Anderson Hall.

All campus veterans are invited. Meeting time is 12:30.

ASB Voting Slated For Late April

April 30, just four weeks from today, has been set as the date for general student body elections. At that time, members of the Associated Students will select new officers to run their affairs for the following year.

Continuing a precedent established last year, the student body election is being held early to allow the new officers to break into their jobs this semester.

Positions open include president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, activities commissioner and seven members at large.

Students wishing to run for office may obtain petitions at the student body office, Hut 4, April 19-23. Petitions must be filed by 4 p.m. April 23.

Petitions must contain 15 signatures and must be accompanied by a statement of qualifications. Only members of the Associated Students are eligible.

Class elections will be held at the beginning of next term.

Cornehlisen Covers Chicago Convention

John H. Cornehlisen Jr., dean of men, represented State at the American College Personnel Association convention this week in Chicago.

Two thousand members and delegates of nine participating organizations attended the annual convention. "Personnel Work as a Profession" was the central theme of Monday to Thursday meeting.

Delegates and members from all states participated in sessions on counseling, placement, professional training and certification, occupational research and administration and supervision.

WSSF Drive Set For April 12-16

World Student Service Fund drive at State is set for April 12-16, George Allen, drive director, announced this week.

A committee has been organized of all club presidents on campus whose efforts will be co-ordinated by the Associated Students under the direction of Allen.

"Everyone on campus has been invited to participate in this drive," Allen said.

Faculty contribution will be handled by Alfred Fisk, professor of philosophy, and Theodore Treutlein, professor of history, who have been active in WSSF since its inception.

Open House Date Set

Open house will be held at Fredrick Burk Elementary School April 15, in accordance with Public Schools-Week in San Francisco, April 26 through May 1.

Special programs are being arranged by the schools, using as a theme, "The Public School: Keep Our Foremost Freedom Train."

Casting Set For 'Antigone'

Casting for "Antigone" has been completed, J. Fenton McKenna, executive director of college drama, announced this week. The play will be presented at 8:30 p.m. April 9, 10, 16 and 17 at Aptos Junior High School Auditorium.

The role of Antigone will be enacted by Virginia Cox. Creon will be played by Stanton Keeney. Other members of the cast include: Tim Haggerty, Jack Kalman, Lois Butcher, Hugh Lonzer, Annie Plaat, Jay Merrick, Jim Gunter and Tom Klunis.

Muriel Landers, drama staff member, will direct the production, and Clarence Miller, director of drama, will handle the lighting effects.

Alumni Pitch Picnic Tomorrow

Several hundred former State students are expected to attend the Annual Senior-Alumni Picnic tomorrow at the new campus.

A baseball game between the alumni team and the State varsity will start at 9:45 a.m. A trophy will be presented to the winning team, followed by a barbecue at noon.

During the afternoon, the Gater nine will play a doubleheader against the Cal Aggies and the State track team will tangle with Cal Poly.

The entire program is free to all alumni, senior and faculty members. All are urged to attend.

Reuss Replaces Martin As Reference Librarian

Virginia Reuss will take over the vacancy of reference librarian made by Elizabeth Martin when she assumed another position.

Mrs. Reuss has had an outstanding background at both Eastern and Western Colleges, and also has unusual language ability, according to Juliet Clark, librarian.

Capital Board Gives Okeh For Added Space; Leonard Expects Construction to Start Next July 1

Plans for the new 100-acre college campus were brought one step nearer to completion this week when the State Public Works Board in Sacramento approved the land acquisition compromise. The campus will run from 19th Avenue on the east to realigned Lake Merced Boulevard on the west and from Park Merced tract to the Stoneson tract on the north. President J. Paul Leonard said he hoped to see construction started on the new campus by next July 1.

ASB CONTEST

Campaign Begins For Yells and Songs

Convinced that the college's yells, songs and emblems are as moth-eaten as the campus, the Board of Directors has voted to sponsor a campaign for new material.

There will be five contests with a $10 first prize for the winning entrants. Phil Ryan, member-at-large, is in charge of the contest.

Divisions are: 1. College yell, 2. College song, 3. Design for college seal, 4. Caricature of school emblem, 5. Design for student body card.

Present Gater yell runs like this: G-A, G-A, G-A-T Rah! E-R, E-R, E-R-S Rah! G-A-T-E-R-S Rah! Rah! Gaters! Gaters! Keep on fighting! Gaters!

This inspiring chant has to be heard to be appreciated, according to team followers.

The present school song is called the State Victory Song, and is known only to a few.

Golden Tide is rising, We're out to meet the foe, Fighting ever on to Victory for San Francisco. Neath our golden banner We'll win today for State; Our colors o'er us—they go before us, We're coming through the Golden Gate.

If that leaves you at sea, try your hand for the ten bucks.

There are no restrictions on the design contests, but verse writers are requested to refrain from matching foe with Frisco, or State with Gate, especially if the latter is Golden.

Entrants for the school song contest should submit music to match their verse—something with a tune in a nice easy key, suitable for bathroom tenors.

Submit entries to the Student Body Office, Hut 4.

Campus Receives 'Shot in Arm'

Four faculty members redecorated their Annex A office during Easter vacation. Runar Stone, superintendent of buildings and grounds, provided the material, and professors Dan Tarbell, Somerville Thomson, Humbert Smith and Ernest Lombardi did the work.

In addition, a new boiler and hot water system were installed in the gym. Other improvements are replacement of all campus iron fences and repainting the Associated Students' offices by Ralph Lewis.

Phi Epsilon Mu Plots Semi-Annual Picnic

Phi Epsilon Mu, honorary physical education fraternity, will hold its semi-annual picnic April 18, according to President Norm Keller. Adobe Creek Lodge is being considered as site for the occasion.

INKKLINGS

State Magazine Hits Stands Monday

Inklings, State's magazine, goes on sale Monday with a professional "new-look."

Edited by Bill Griffith, the '48 Inklings follows the format of a commercial magazine and contains short stories, articles and poetry submitted by State students.

Contributors and their stories include: Hy Bik, "The Value Volume Club"; Terrence Michael Kilpatrick, "Coffin Corner"; Gil Dean, "The Gambler"; Chuck Elkind,

Kilpatrick Wins $5 Story Award

"Coffin Corner," a football story by Terrence Michael Kilpatrick, won the $5 award as the best written article in the April issue of Inklings magazine, it was announced yesterday by Editor Bill Griffith.

Contest judges were Edward E. Cassidy, associate professor of English; Jim Haran, drama student; and Gerald Hill, journalism student.

"That New Campus!," an article by Jack Laycox, and "The Humble Bigot," a poem by Manuel Joffe, received special commendation.

"That New Campus" by Jack Laycox; "Boss Gardener" by Bill Griffith; and "Movies on the Make" by Jack Robinson comprise the articles contained in the issue.

Poetry was submitted by Olive R. L. Ober, Manuel Joffe and Jack Conway.

Copies of Inklings are being sent to Joseph Henry Jackson, Chronicle; Duke Meyer, Call-Bulletin; Nancy Barr Mavity, Tribune; Ken Carnahan, Station KGO; and various San Francisco book stores.

Assisting Griffith were Jean Heldoorn, make-up editor; Hank Weiss, publicity director; and Jack Laycox, staff artist.

Inklings may be purchased for 15 cents in front of the Co-op and the Snack Bar Monday through Wednesday.

Block 'S' Plans 'Balloon Ball'

Block "S" will throw its semi-annual Balloon Ball next Friday night in the gym, President Ken Shelley announced this week.

Purpose of the dance is to raise money for the Athletic Booster Fund, which helps all athletes and teams in the college.

Athletic Booster Fund was set up by the Block "S" with the approval of the Division of Health, Physical Education and Recreation.

Walt Tolleson's band is slated to perform for the shindig. Prices will range from 75 cents with student body card to 95 cents without.

Leonard Wields Gavel At Asilomar Conference

President J. Paul Leonard currently is acting as co-chairman at the four-day conference on school curricula and philosophies of teaching at Asilomar.

More than 300 California county superintendents and staff workers gathered at the parley, which began Wednesday.

Ray E. Simpson, state superintendent of public instruction, was the principal speaker, on "The Needs of California Youth."

Skip-Stop Street Cars Snub State Students

Are you still perturbed at that street car conductor for taking you one block past your destination?

Well, don't be. He just is following orders—orders from the Pacific Gas and Electric Company.

In its attempt to conserve power during the current shortage, PG&E has requested that Municipal Railways skip stops on their daily runs throughout the city.

The approval also gave the go-ahead signal to State Architect Anson Boyd to proceed with plans and negotiate for the actual building.

"All plans made before release of the State Survey of Higher Education in February must be changed," Dr. Leonard said.

Previously, the new campus had been planned for 3300 students, but the survey recommended facilities for 5000. Because of the recommendation, Dr. Leonard has been meeting with department heads to work out changes for an estimate of needs.

Dr. Leonard said survey lines will be run on the college site. Written approval then must be obtained from all property owners who are parties to the compromise.

They include the Stoneson Development Company, Metropolitan Life Insurance Company and the City of San Francisco.

Choir Lends Voice To Joint Concert For War Victims

State's Capella Choir will join glee clubs of five Bay Area colleges in a joint concert at 8:30 p.m. April 15 in the Opera House. The program will be presented by the schools in co-operation with the National Students' Association. Proceeds will go to war-stricken students in Europe.

The choir will share top billing with Clarence Mader, prominent American organist, at 4 p.m. Sunday, when they present two selections for the American Guild of Organists at Grace Cathedral.

Raymond L. White, Division of Creative Arts, will accompany the group on the organ.

That "One World" is possible through music will be demonstrated Tuesday night at Aptos Auditorium, Aptos and Ocean Avenues, where the Concert Band will present its annual Spring program at 8:15.

Presented by the Music Federation, in conjunction with the Division of Creative Arts, the group will perform works by classic French, German, Italian, Russian and contemporary American composers. The 85 instrumentalists are directed by Lee Chrisman, with Edwin Kruth as associate conductor.

Bureau Discusses 'Palestine Switch'

State's Discussion Bureau steps before the public for the first time when it presents the "Palestine Switch" Tuesday in AA-9 at 1 p.m. Mrs. Ethel Joachim will head the group.

Four other main world problems will be given in the following order: April 13, "Third Party"; April 17, "Taft-Hartley" Act; April 20, "Compulsory Arbitration"; and April 27, "World Government."

Bill Dennis was chairman of the discussion on the "Third Party" at the meeting last week.

Final Action Due On Wage Ceilings

Final action by the Senate on a bill to increase the ceiling on wage earnings by veteran college students is expected this week, according to letters received by the Veterans' Post from Rep. Frank Havenner and Sen. William F. Knowland.

The bill would raise the ceiling to $210 a month for veterans with no dependents, $270 a month for veterans with one dependent and $290 a month for veterans with two or more dependents.

Columbia University Has World Tours For Students

Twenty world tours are scheduled by Columbia University Travel Service for college students. Information concerning the tours may be obtained from World Traveltours, Columbia University Travel Service, New York 27, New York.

Witt-Diamant Recovers

Ruth Witt-Diamant now is recovering from an operation she underwent March 16. She is at home and is expected to return to State next week.

President Reveals Fall GE Program

Details of the general education program, to be inaugurated September 15, were revealed this week by President J. Paul Leonard.

The program, designed to fulfill the personal needs of the students and to educate each student for intelligent, well-rounded living, is the first of its kind to be undertaken in the West.

"At the present time, the new curriculum has been completed only for incoming freshmen," said President Leonard, "but our final goal will be to have the program spread over the entire four-year college course."

Every available high school record of the entering student will be studied by the instructors. The student will then undergo a program of analytical tests which will be continued as long as necessary.

The freshman student will spend 20 of his first 23 semester school hours learning and studying about himself in relation to his present environment. His professors and instructors will assist and guide him as well as measure his abilities. By the end of the first six months

Staters Wonder About Draft

As far as Staters were concerned, the "nationalemergency" was just like the weather this week. Everybody talked about it, but nothing was done.

Nothing has been heard but vague rumblings from Washington since President Truman's speech before Congress March 17, asking for passage of the European Recovery Program, Universal Military Training and a temporary draft.

Both the House and Senate have begun simultaneous but diverging action on ERP. And hearings have been instituted by various committees and subcommittees to determine the necessity of UMT or a draft. Meanwhile, veterans and non-veterans alike at State are putting off buying new clothes, and are waiting.

be relaxed or modified in case of unusual students.

Dr. Leonard went on to say: "After the student has discovered his own interests, abilities and and simultaneously he will be taught the orderly development of ideas and their projection. There also will be an intensive education for leisure hours.

This will occupy the first 20 hours of the first semester. The remaining three will be devoted to an elective course which will be chosen only after much counseling.

"During the second semester," continued President Leonard, "the student will give attention to the basic structure of democracy and the primary economic principles on which our system of free enterprise is based."

In addition, he will study the impact of conventions and technical developments in the social life of man. He will continue the study of the communication of the idea and the development of his leisure interests.

When the student reaches his sophomore year, he will begin his major interest course. But the planning for leisure hours and guidance and counseling will not cease.

President Leonard concluded: "We have many resources we intend to use as the program develops. This, after all, is just the beginning."

BOARD CLARIFIES STAND

Board of Directors has enmeshed itself in the machination of legislation. In short, it has pulled a boner! Deans' Committee spent the first four semester weeks formulating a nine-point plan. All campus organizations are obliged to comply with the terms of the plan in order to retain on-campus status.

This proposal was approved by Board of Directors. Automatically, all units that did not meet the stipulations of the plan were ruled off-campus.

Some religious groups were victims of the pact as they specifically are founded on the premise that only members of that faith would be concerned and eligible.

The veteran group, American Veterans' Committee, as far as can be determined, satisfies all requirements of the plan. Therefore, AVC should be considered officially on-campus.

However, at its last meeting, the Board of Directors voted to "stand in favor of the American Veterans' Committee" as an on-campus organization.

Maybe we are a little dense when it comes to the involved procedure demanded by politicians, but it would appear that the Board made its position on on-campus status entirely clear when it passed the nine-point plan. Obviously, they are now ignoring the provisions therein.

The plan was drawn up as a criterion for on-campus standing. AVC's status should be determined by comparing its platform with the tenets of the plan. If AVC meets the requirements of the nine-point plan, it's on-campus. If it doesn't, it's off-campus. The whole problem seems that simple to us.

Budget Slash Should Be Shelved

San Francisco State College now is forced to cut down its teaching staff. This is an end-result of a $30,000 slash in the college salary budget by the Assembly Ways and Means committee.

The ratio of teachers to students has been 1-18, but now that this salary cut has gone into effect, the ratio will be 1-19. The legislators feel this to be a reasonable teacher load.

However, the salary cut will mean a loss of eight instructors, according to John H. Butler, dean of professional studies, and the loss will be felt in all divisions.

The loss will not hurt the administration or the faculty, but will hurt the student. Classes will be even larger than they now are. If the present curriculum is maintained, professors and instructors will be teaching bigger classes. If teachers are not allowed to carry bigger classes, courses in the present curriculum will have to be dropped.

In either event, the student will be deprived of full educational rights. Only solution for the Assembly Ways and Means Committee is to forget the budget slash, since no one will benefit from the cut, and everyone will feel it.

Restrain Pledging Exercises

As it must to every college, the pledge period has come to State. In the wake of pledging, however, follows the traditional, arduous and sometimes injurious initiation.

As organizations gleefully prepare to absorb new members by dusting off paddles and old goldfish, we would like to introduce a sober note in the form of a plea.

In order to avoid unfavorable notoriety for fraternities and sororities in this vicinity, we ask that dissection exercises in canine anatomy or realistic enactments of medieval torture chamber scenes, as featured elsewhere, by-pass initiations of State organizations.

To our knowledge, nothing of a violent nature has occurred in State initiations in the past. Lest some enthusiastic sadists suddenly take over, we hope the hum-drum atmosphere of State continue to pervade the initiation ceremonies of fraternities and sororities. —E. E.

Skip-Stop Ordinance Is Unwise

(Editor's Note—This is a copy of a letter sent to the Public Utilities Commission by a State student, airing views on the "Skip-Stop" ordinance, concerning San Francisco street cars, which recently went into effect.)

I wish to call your attention to the skip-stop situation, which now directly affects the students and faculty of San Francisco State College.

In the outlying districts, where the city blocks are short and there are no steep hills, perhaps the plan is feasible. To put into effect such an arrangement in the vicinity of San Francisco State is indeed an unwise intrusion upon the comfort and convenience of a great many individuals.

The college students and the faculty are not the only ones concerned in this matter. There are many youngsters attending Frederic Burk School (part of the campus) who are dependent upon the street cars for transportation to and from school. The present inadequacy is not only inconsistent for them—it is actually hazardous.—Betty Daly.

HEPPER SIDE

Bride Late! Cat Ad Libs

By LUISA HEPPER

Congratulations to Francis Claussen for a first-class job of ad libbing.

When Jack Frost was married last month, Francis was organist for the occasion. Seems there was slight misunderstanding concerning the bride's arrival.

Starting the wedding march, Francis was quickly hushed by a whispered warning that the time was not yet. With ease and nonchalance, he improvised on the theme, unperturbed, until the bride was ready. That takes quick thinking and skill... good boy!

Renditions by State's a capella choir were a featured part of the ceremony also.

Incidentally, Jack has succeeded Joseph Eubanks as president of the choral group for the Spring semester.

HILL-TOPPERS ACTIVE

Bill Wheeler's five Hill-toppers comprise the featured band at the YMCA dances every Saturday night.

The Hill-toppers include such Alley-cats as Lloyd Davis, drums; Howard Hiatt, piano; Jim Howard, sax; Tom Intraivola, trumpet, with Bill leading on the T-bone.

Amusing angle to this story is that Hiatt, who plays terrific piano, is a chem major at State!

LOCAL DISCS WAXED

Best records of the week: Have you heard the discs waxed by the Concert Band? Very professional sounding! Encore, please, by some of the other fine musical activities on campus.

Whatever happened to that oxidized paper recorder which the college symphony experimented some time ago?

Rumor was that its purchase by the Division of Creative Arts was pending. Sounds like money well spent on a worth-while cause.

TUESDAY NIGHTS

Fencing Returns Sans Early Charm

By JACK CONWAY

The ring of steel, the gnashing of teeth and the groans of various gluteus maximi are commonplace these days in at least one State classroom. For when Thurwall Proctor gets underway the art of fencing drops its Elizabethan charm and stands painfully revealed.

Hidden beneath the rather pedestrian title of PE 83A, from the curricula of the same name, the aforementioned class in thrust and parry invades the cloistered halls of Westminster Church every Tuesday evening with all the zeal and abandon of a troupe of the King's Own Fusiliers, with varying results.

Though the majority of the twenty-odd members of the class are pursuing nothing more esoteric than flat stomachs and snappier synapses a definite attempt is being made to augment the nucleus of an intercollegiate fencing team which State now possesses. Viewing this semester's record-breaking enrollment with ill-concealed elation, Mr. Proctor admitted that prospects are very good, a masterpiece of understatement.

Rigid and prolonged practice being the key to success, he confided, neophytes should devote every available hour to fencing. Mr. Proctor even has signs for class members to hang on their lockers during their absence. Simple and to the point.

"Out To Lounge". (Ouch!)

Death Valley Visited During Easter Holiday

Twenty members of the Geography Club visited Death Valley during Easter Week.

The five-car caravan left the Bay Area Saturday, March 20, under the direction of Walter Hacker, geography instructor, and returned the following Wednesday.

While at Death Valley, the group made use of sleeping bags, tents and reflector ovens.

The club members located geographical and historical points of interest.

COLLEGE MEN TELL

What a Coed Should Know

College men have very definite ideas on how a young woman should act when she is to be his guest at a house party or prom.

A symposium of students at Yale, Princeton, Harvard, Wesleyan, University of Virginia, Dartmouth and Amherst, reported in the March issue of Junior Bazaar, discloses what the boys like and what they didn't like about girls' actions on these weekend dates.

First of all, they want a prompt yes or no to their invitations, and only a major catastrophe is considered a valid excuse for a last-minute cancellation.

KEEP SAME DATE

They hope you'll get along well with the girls you'll meet but abhor the "chattering and shrieking with girls they've seen in the lab the day before." They are also dead set against the girls who make a play for their best friend.

"Often, the college man turns his room over to his date for the weekend," the article states. "If he comes back to it Monday to find lipstick on the bureau cover, cigarette holes in the bedspread, and his favorite neckties, banner or college trophy missing (she wanted a souvenir), there will be no return engagement."

Also, he does not feel kindly about having to trudge to the post office with tidy parcels of forgotten scarves, mittens or hats.

A good tip for the girls is to familiarize themselves with recent sports events so they will be able to talk half way intelligently in the event they are called upon to watch a sports contest during the weekend.

AVOID DARING ATTITUDE

One of the most urgent recommendations from the men is "don't overdress," so girls will be wise to avoid too daring extremes in attire.

Another fervent plea from the prospective hosts is, "get it all in one suitcase; we have to carry it you know."

"You might have a couple of reasonably good, clean jokes on tap for difficult moments," the article states. "Off-color jokes and truck-driver language do not give you an aura of sophistication. They either discomfort your host or confuse his chaste mental image of you."

Also, there undoubtedly will be one stock phrase which becomes the cliché of the weekend. If you can still laugh when it's uttered for the thousandth time, you'll have earned a reputation for a grand sense of humor."

THE BOILER ROOM

To the Editor: Why more college students aren't backing MacArthur for President is something I will never know.

Beyond all shadow of a doubt, MacArthur is the man to get into the driver's seat in this critical hour of our history.

He has proven himself a leader. His diplomacy is paying off in Japan. Surely a man who combines these talents should be the one to lead this nation.

Dorothy Trent.

To the Editor: I am happy to see that the name Henry Wallace placed number one in the informal presidential candidate popularity poll conducted by the Golden Gater.

The poll clearly shows how fed-up we are with the present administration, and that we are crying for a change.

Hats off to America's number one presidential candidate, and future chief executive.

Student Turns Comic

A PROFESSOR WAS TALKING to his psychology class the other day on the subject, "Drives and Motives." Citing an example, the professor went on: "When we are hungry, what are we concerned with—drives or motives?" A quack in the back of the room answered: "I'm concerned with eating, aren't you?"

A FREDDIE BURK NOVICE is a little uncertain about his profession after overhearing a conversation of his tots. One asked his buddy, "What would you do if a 50-ton elephant were fired out of a cannon at you?" His companion hesitated momentarily and asked, "What size cannon?"

WHICH REMINDS US... The library, after lo these many years, has taken a subscription to the Call-Bulletin and the Examiner. Now, politically-minded students about campus can find out how the other half lives.

Rumors that State's own Coach DICK BOYLE was among those being considered for JIM PHELAN'S vacated post as St. Mary's coach... Gael alumnus Boyle, "The Blue Ghost," of 1931 likes the PE set-up here and, even if selected from the long list of possibilities, would stay at S.F.

It should be the San Francisco Seals and the Oakland Oaks battling down to the wire for the PCL pennant, according to a poll of nine sport writers on the Golden Gator. Figuring eight points for first, seven for second, etc., the Sassy Seals received 67 points to the Oaks' 66. Results were:

Oaks	66

Seattle	40
Sacramento	38
Portland	33
San Diego	28

Hollywood was a unanimous last place choice.

Echoes of the past: It was back in 1929 that Dean David Cox began single-handedly setting up State's PE dept. ... Dean Cox got hold of old Recreation Park, one-time Seals' Stadium in 1938. ... It was renamed Roberts' Stadium, but became known as "The Stadium That Cox Built," as Cox personally built much of the stadium. It was taken over as a housing project in 1942.

72-59

Tide Romps
Over Broncs

Showing strength in the track but weakness in field events, Gator cindermen romped to a 72-59 victory over the Santa Clara Broncos in wind-swept Kezar Stadium March 20.

A mild upset was registered in the century as Paul Conn of Santa Clara nosed out Hal Fox and Ed Bryan at the tape. Hal came back with vengeance in the furlong, breaking the adhesive in 22.6. Bryan won the low hurdles in 25.5.

In the nip-and-tuck duel against Tony Villabranca of the Broncos, Don Oakes brought victory for the Tide as he edged his adversary in the grueling mile run.

The two-mile run was no contest, as John Holden nearly lapped the field in winning the event. Bill Brennan copped the 880 with similar ease. Earl Boles surprised no one as he led the field in the high hurdles.

Cal Poly served as a punching bag in football and basketball this year.

It was a different story in the field events, however, as the Gators were shut out in the discus, and had to settle for seconds in the high jump, javelin and shot put.

Best performance in the field was turned in by Bob Keropian, who stretched his legs for 22' 4" mark in the broad jump. Tom Carroll and Ira Call soared first and third, respectively, in the pole vault.

Coach Ray Kaufman experimented with the relay team, giving the new men a chance to show their wares. The strategy paid off, even though the Staters ran second, as a new star discovered in the person of George Kamian, who ran a 53 second quarter mile.

DIMAGGIO POSE—Gator second-sacker Tom Gaffney watches his fourth inning double go on its way into the outer reaches of left field. Gaffney's two-bagger with S. F. trailing, 2-1, sent Herb Bill and "Cass" Cassalagio across the plate to put State out in front in Saturday's opener. The Gators went on to win, 7-2.

San Jose Surprises Netsters
Woolfson Is Overcome in Intercollegiate Semi-Finals

What had been hailed in the Golden Gator the week previously as a "fire-and-brimstone Gator net squad" lived up to its press clippings by trimming the Northern California Junior College tennis championship San Mateo JC squad, 6-3, on the Golden Gate Park courts.

That was Thursday. Two days later, Saturday, on the same courts, the "fire-and-brimstone Gator net squad" turned to cold, damp charcoal as it went under to invading San Jose State by a 5-4 count. Five of the matches went three sets—all to SJ. The Spartans evidently didn't take much stock of the Gator sport page.

MEET AGGIES NEXT

Tomorrow, State's twice-bitten, twice-shy courtiers grapple with trekking Cal Aggie on the G. G. Park courts. Action is slated for 10:30 a.m.

Nevertheless, a ray of sunshine peeked through the dim haze of the Buchanan Street netsters' second defeat of '48, with victories numbered 34 and 35 being racked up by Joe Woolfson, "ole reliable." Ralph "Chip" Chippendale maintained a five-for-five record in the number three spot. Woolfson and Chippendale are undefeated in doubles, having taken the measure of four opponents.

Another balm to State's sores was the tie for third place with Stanford, garnered by Golden Tide netsters in the Second Annual Northern California Intercollegiate Tennis Championships held in Berkeley over the weekend. State's own "Genial Dan" Farmer was one of the main originators of the tourney, won this year by USF, with COP as runner-up.

Reaching the quarter-finals was sixth-seeded Woolfson, who dropped a 2-6, 6-0, 8-6 decision to second-seeded Conway Catton of USF. Woolfson had Catton, 5-1, and point match in the third set.

CHIPPENDALE WINS PAIR

Chippendale knocked over two opponents in three-sets before dropping one himself, to third-seeded Harry Roche of USF, 6-4, 3-6, 6-1, in the third round.

Gene Phillips was routed in the second round by seventh-seeded George Gossler of Cal; Major McBee received the same treatment from Catton; and portly Bill Jackson scraped and sweated but still came out second best to Fresno State's Hugh Stewart, 3-6, 9-7, 7-5. Woolfson and Chippendale, seeded fourth in the doubles, reached the semi-finals before bowing out to Likas and Roche, seeded first, 6-2, 6-2. Jackson and McBee carried San Jose State's first doubles team of Gene Franco and Don McKenzie to three sets before succumbing, 3-6, 6-4, 7-5.

'Mural Speedball Meet
Called Off by Harkness

The intramural speedball tournament has been canceled by Coach Bill Harkness due to the recent run of bad weather and interference caused by fence repair work.

Because of this, the volleyball tournament will start next week.

Earl Clayton Hurls State
To 6-2 Win Over Flyers

LAKE MERCED DIAMOND, March 30.—Hurled Earl Clayton racked up his second victory of the season as the Gators hammered the Hamilton Field Flyers into submission, 6-2, this afternoon.

Clayton, former Washington High star, now has a record of two wins and one loss.

Outfielder Jimmy Johnston is now leading Gator sluggers with seven hits in 14 times at bat for a .500 average.

Edstrom Smothers Chico;
Gators Edged in Nightcap

LAKE MERCED DIAMOND, March 27.—State opened defense of its Far Western Conference laurels inauspiciously today against Chico State, dropping the last half of a double-header to the visitors by a 7-6 count after pounding out a 7-2 win in the opener behind Irv Edstrom's five-hit pitching.

The loss in the nightcap snapped a six-game winning streak for the Gators, which started March 6 with a 13-5 massacre of USF.

The Tide backed Edstrom's superlative elbowing with an 11-hit barrage, featuring doubles by Ed Kenna, "Cass" Cassalagio and Tom Gaffney. Flossy infield play gave the Gator ace his fourth win against no setbacks.

State trailed, 2-1, until the fourth inning, when Gaffney rifled a double to left field to score Herb

MAT ACE

Kimura Wins
Olympic Try

Joe Kimura, State's ace wrestler, handily won the Olympic title (125 lbs.) in the 15th Olympic district tryouts last Saturday. By winning this championship he becomes a candidate for the final Olympic trials at Ames, Iowa, April 28-May 1. State finished fifth in the tryouts.

He put himself in line for the Olympic tryouts by winning the 125-pound championship in the Pacific Association matches March 21 at San Jose.

Kimura, undefeated in more than 20 bouts this year, romped through his opposition with ease as he turned on the heat. He dropped several of his adversaries in less than a minute.

San Jose State won this meet with 41 points. SF finished fourth with eight tallies.

Designs Needed
For Intramural
Winners' Trophy

A perpetual trophy has been donated to State's Intramural program by the Roos Bros. Sport Shop. George Vavuris contributed much to obtaining the trophy.

The trophy is being built to the specifications of the PE 99 class, to which designs should be submitted. It will be awarded on the basis of the total number of points accumulated by each team during the year. Final details will be announced in the near future.

Block "S" presented the movie "Play Volleyball" last Tuesday. The film shows the fundamental skills of volleyball in co-operation with the intramural volleyball tournament.

Students in charge of the tourney are Alton Fish, assisted by John Pasanen.

Mermen Meet Navy
After Davis Loss

To be a good loser is hard. Today, no one knows that better than the Gator mermen, who received their second consecutive loss of the season at the hands of the Col Aggie paddlers, 42-33, at the victors' home grounds March 20.

Roger Sobel was the only Stater able to cop a first place, winning both the 50 and 100 yards freestyle. Behind him, Ken Mavor came in for second in both dashes.

Keeping its undefeated status intact, the Tide's 400 yard relay squad gave a brilliant performance as it won the stint in 4:04.1, best time this season. Tom Hasper, Wade, Mavor and Sobel were the boys in the limelight.

Monday at 7:30 p.m. the mermen travel to Treasure Island, with hopes of thrashing the sailors again. They previously drowned T. I. on March 20.

Bees Clip Brats in
WAA Hoop Tussles

Women's Athletic Association intramural basketball opened with the Owen's Bees pitted against the Brett Brats, March 15 and 16, in the gym. In both outings the Owen's Bees managed to nose out the Brats on successive days, 26-24, 22-21.

The Bees, coached by Miss Lucille Owensby, physical education instructor, started the match with Thelma Van Sickle, Jilma Marshall and pat Gillespie, forwards; Barbara Lutz, Mary Ellen Butler, Helen Blount and Lillian Logan, guards. Thelma Van Sickle was high point man with 11 points for the first game.

Brat forwards Audrey Reid, Ernestine Moore, Camille Cruz, Evie Pellaton and Betty Schwartz tried shots from many angles, but were unable to overtake the lead of the Owen's Bees.

Yearbook Deadline Shifted To Avoid Financial Mix-up

Deadline for Franciscan payments has been extended to April 12, according to Don Westover, business manager of the publication. "Payments must be made by that date in order that we may meet publication costs," Westover said. Delay in veteran checks and Easter vacation week were the immediate causes for the deadline extension, which was originally scheduled for April 1.

Four hundred fifty Franciscans have been paid for, according to a financial statement issued by Charles Roumasset, administrator of student affairs.

"This means that 750 books remain to be sold," Roumasset stated. Photographers were on campus during the week to take candid shots of students. Ten pages of candid photos will bring the total of pictures in the annual to 2000.

According to Miss Pat Merrill, editor, the cover will be of embossed fabricoid material. The contents include four "surprise" dedications not to be revealed until release of the book.

Theme of the Franciscan this year is "Rotag and Etats," who are to be identified later in the semester. Details will be announced soon.

According to Westover the Franciscan will be distributed June 1.

Vets Should Ask Vacation Leave

State veterans are asked to inform Veterans' Administration 30 days before the end of the semester if they want to take leave. If veterans do not notify VA, they will be placed automatically on 15-day leave.

VA explained that veterans are placed on subsistence rolls from the date of enrollment until 15 days after the close of the semester.

This automatic leave policy enables veterans, studying under the accelerated program, to receive unbroken subsistence payment between semesters.

Four Groups Combine To Show Social Films

Movies, sponsored by Student Christian Association, Hillel Foundation, American Veterans' Committee and Free World Club, will be shown April 6 at 1 p.m. in Room A210.

The selections to be shown are "Seeds of Destiny," "Boundary Lines" and "Not By Bread Alone."

Fall Counseling Will Begin Soon, Says Dean Homan

Counseling for the fall semester will begin soon, according to Walter J. Homan, dean of student personnel and guidance. All students, except those who entered in spring semester, must bring to their counseling appointment a photostatic copy of their grades.

All sophomores and upper division students must file majors and minors with the counselors and registrar before appointment. All students must bring a tentative program for fall semester.

Any program changes after fees are paid and registration is completed must be approved by your counselor. All programs will be filed in Room 105, College Hall. Dates for appointments will be published later.

'Workshop' Plays Encored Tonight

By popular demand, drama students will present a repeat performance of their initial workshop productions tonight at 8:30 in Frederic Burk Auditorium.

The three plays, "Suppressed Desires," "Where the Cross is Made" and "A Kiss in the Dark," are expected to command a larger audience than in their previous run, according to Clarence Miller, director of drama.

Admission is 25 cents with student body card and 40 cents without card.

Miss Benkman To Give Recital

Patricia Benkman, daughter of Herbert Benkman, State music instructor, will give a piano recital April 15 at 8:30 p.m. in the Marines' Memorial Theatre.

Miss Benkman appeared last year in a joint concert with Lauritz Melchior, as soloist with symphony orchestra, in New York.

Her father is a flute instructor and has played with the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra.

'Cinched' Vets to See VA

Veterans receiving "cinch notices" are requested to come to the Guidance Center. The office offers remedial counseling in study habits.

Major H. K. Throneson Names Candidates.

Marine 'Brass Hats' To Be Picked Here

State is the only college in the Bay Area chosen as the site of an officer procurement program by U. S. Marine Corps, according to Major Harold K. Throneson, officer procurement officer for California and Arizona.

Major Throneson will interview possible candidates for officer training in Hut 5, Student Lounge, April 5, 6, 7. Marine Corps films will be shown from 10-11 a.m. on those dates.

Those chosen will be enrolled in the Marine Corps Reserve (inactive). Six-week instruction periods will be held during the summer at the Marine Corps Officers Schools, Quantico, Va. Candidates will receive $339 for the training period. Upon completion of the training periods and after graduating from college, the trainees are eligible for commissions as second lieutenants in the reserves.

A graduate of Pomona College in 1939, Major Throneson did post-graduate work at San Francisco State College, majoring in physical education in 1940. He was a member of the Marine Reserve at the time of Pearl Harbor, and, subsequently, served with the Marines from Iceland to China.

JEFFERSON'S ROUGH DRAFT OF THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE

A Declaration by the Representatives of the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, in General Congress assembled

When in the course of human events it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth the separate and equal station to which the laws of nature and of nature's god entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness; that to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed; that whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall appear most likely to promote their Safety and Happiness.

Part of the original manuscript of the Declaration of Independence, written by Thomas Jefferson. It is now on display aboard the "Freedom Train." The revisions shown were included in the document finally presented to the Continental Congress.
